St. Louis, July 6, 1870.—Jas. A. Jackson & Co.: Having examined the formula from which your celebrated "Stomach Bitters" are prepared and having witnessed the method of combining the deferent inguedients, we can safely recommend them as the lest tonic with which we are acquisated. From the great care with which they are compounded, and from the choice materials which exter into them, we have no doubt that they will prove, as they deserve to be, the most popular tonic and stimulant in use.

They are A SURE PREVENTIVE for Fever and Ague, intermittents, Billiousness, and all disorders string from Minsmatic courses. They are recommended as an anti-dyspeptic and in cases of indigestion are invaluable as an Appetizer and Recuperant, and in case of General Debility they have never in a single instance failed in producing the most happy results. They are particularly BENEFICIAL TO FEMALES, strengthening the body, invigorating the mind, and giving tone and elasticity to the whole system. The HOME BITTERS are compounded with the greatest care, and no Tonic Stimulant has ever been offered to the public SO PLEASANT TO THE 135TE, and at the same time combining so many remedial agents, indorsed by the medical fraternity as the best known to the Pharmacopeeia. St. Louis, July, 1870.—James A. Jackson & Co.: Gentlemen—As you have communicated to the medical profession the recape of the "Home Bitters," it cannot, therefore, be considered as a secret or patent medicine, no patent having been taken for it. We have examine a the formula for making the "Home Bitters," and unbesteatingly say the combination is one of rare excellence, all the articles used in its composition are the best of the class to which they belong, being highly Ionic, Stimulant, Stomachic, Carminative and slightly Laxative. The mode of preparing them is strictly in accordance with the rules of pharmacy. Having used them, seen its effect in our private practice, we take pleasure in recommending them to all persons desirous of taking Bitters, as being the best Tonic and Stimulant now offered to the public.
